

The House of Representatives

Citation

Whereas, The House of Representatives of Pennsylvania is always pleased to acknowledge those individuals who, through their exceptional skills and talent, bring about a better understanding of the arts and culture in this Commonwealth; and

Whereas, Don Camp, renowned Philadelphia artist and photographer, is being honored upon the final installation of his project, entitled "Points of Departure: Art on the Line"; and

Whereas, An exhibition of public art projects in train stations on the R5 Regional Rail Line between 30th Street in Philadelphia and Bryn Mawr, Mr. Camp relied on students from the Haverford School for Boys and the Baldwin School for Girls to help him complete his project, which had several installations and were placed on walls of train stations. His project began in September 1999, and he began meeting with students from the schools to discuss gender issues and the inequality of women in our culture. Mr. Camp encouraged the students to keep journals and collect images which evoked emotional responses, which were then used as the basis for the project. Mr. Camp is a graduate of the Tyler School of Art and has taught art at Tyler, Slippery Rock University and the University of the Arts. He has received numerous fellowships and awards, and his beneficial work has served to bring about a new appreciation of art and thoughts about culture as it stands today.

Now therefore, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania congratulates Don Camp upon the great distinction which has been placed upon him; offers sincere best wishes for continued success in all future endeavors;

And directs that a copy of this citation, sponsored by the Honorable Connie Williams on September 22, 2000, be transmitted to Don Camp.

Connie Williams

Connie Williams, Sponsor

Matthew Ryan

Matthew Ryan, Speaker of the House

Attest:

Ted Mazia

Ted Mazia, Chief Clerk of the House

